

Dear Member of Parliament :

On 28 January 2010 The National Post quoted the Honourable Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, as saying:

“The Immigration and Refugee Board and the courts have determined that Mr. Lennikov is not admissible to Canada under our laws.”

I agree!

So why is this veteran officer of the notorious Soviet secret police, the KGB, still here? To

PS On 1 June 2009 Mr. Justice Russel W. Zinn found: “The applicant has had the benefit of every procedure available to him under the Act. At some point, a deportation order must be carried out otherwise the integrity of the process is called into question.” He cited Mr. Justice Evans (Selliah v. Canada, Minister of Citizenship and Immigration, 2004 FCA 261) “...the balance of convenience does not favour delaying further the discharge of either the applicants’ duty...to leave Canada immediately, or the Minister’s duty to remove them as soon as reasonably practicable...This is not simply a question of administrative convenience, but implicates the integrity, and fairness of, and public confidence in, Canada’s system of immigration control.”

Federal Court of Canada, 1 June 2009, Docket IMM-1134-09

NO KGB IN CANADA!
